

The Right to Respect

Workplace Harassment Training

Employees are your most important resource – achieve legal compliance whilst promoting a fair and respectful work environment with our workshop.

Program Details

Applying best practices, our certified HR facilitator will help you and your team:

- Define harassment within your specific work setting.
- Review related employment legislation, labour codes, and Human Rights codes.
- Commit to a respectful workspace free from any form of discrimination or harassment.
- Establish your organization's process in managing cases of discrimination
- This program provides legal compliance and protection, in line with Ontario's employment legislation, Bill 168.

Your Takeaways

On behalf of your organization, we help you:

- Create an awareness of conduct that is considered acceptable.
- Provide support and protection to employees.
- Outline the process to use if harassment or discrimination occurs.
- Protect employees against workplace harassment and discrimination.
- Clarify manager's legal responsibilities.

Training Length