

Developing High Performing Teams

Discover all the elements of a great team.

Program Details

Have you ever been part of a great team at work? A team where you loved to come to work every morning, a team that charged you up with energy, and a team that encouraged you to accomplish goals you thought were impossible. On this team you felt a great sense of belonging and believed that others had your back in every situation. This team made work fun, exciting and an adventure every day.

The purpose of this ½ day training program is to equip managers with a better understanding of team dynamics and how they, as the leaders influence the engagement and productivity of their team members.

Training Outcomes

At the end of the workshops, participants will understand:

- The different types of teams and the qualities of an effective team.
- How to build an effective a team that is engaged, enthusiastic and participative.
- Their own style and preferences through the use of self-assessment tools such as MBTI (personality), TKI (conflict) and how this impacts group dynamics.
- How to build organizational community (diversity, sensitivity, awareness, understanding of and impact of organizational culture).
