

Employee Engagement

Build a better, more productive workplace.

Program Details

Employee engagement is the extent to which employees feel valued and involved in their everyday work. At its core, it comes down to whether employees feel invested in their company's mission and its success.

Running an employee engagement survey doesn't just measure how happy employees are—it measures how dedicated they are to the mission and outcome of your company. Measuring employee engagement, then, is even more crucial: It's an important indicator of the health of your business and a good way to spot areas for improvement.

Sound employment practices geared toward attracting, training, retaining and rewarding employees must reflect a clear understanding of the employees who make up the workforce. Employee surveys are an excellent vehicle for gaining that insight.
